

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JULY 27, 1897.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers.

Excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however, does not include.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—52 times—the bill is $13.25. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "bill for bill" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

We Must Make Room

In anticipation of a big fall trade, and realizing that goods pertaining to our lines will advance, (a great many have already,) we bought early and largely. We are already beginning to receive shipments. Moreover it will not be long before our great line of Men's Shoes will come in, so you see we must make room. Now, if you will look in our windows and see the line of Suits we are offering at $10 you will assist us in making room. All of our Fancy Cheviot Suits, in Checks, Plaids, Stripes, etc., Suits that we sold at $18, $16.50 and $15, go in this sale.

No house in the state ever did or ever will offer a line of Suits like these for the price,

:- $10.00!

It is the greatest sacrifice sale we ever made, but as our patrons will be benefited, and it secures us room and money, we will only be too glad to have you take advantage of this sale. We have no room to quote prices on our more medium grades, but the entire stock will be sold at proportionate prices.

Please bear in mind this: No Suit will be sent out on approval. No Suit will be charged. Only :- CASH!

Will buy the goods during this sale. Money, however, will be cheerfully returned if goods don't suit upon home examination.

R. B. LOVELL.

The large tobacco barn belonging to James Walker near Brookville was struck by lightning Saturday and burned, together with 200 bushels of wheat. Loss $1,500.

Judge Wadsworth yesterday afternoon heard the case of James Hasson, Jr., charged with cutting Charles Fox with intent to kill. A large number of witnesses were heard, these for the defense testifying that Fox had been drunk all the day of the difficulty. At the conclusion of the testimony the Court held Mr. Hasson in $500 for his appearance before the Grand Jury.

The Fayette County Grand Jury has adjourned sine die. It has brought in more indictments against lawbreakers than any Grand Jury during the past decade, but absolutely refused, after thoroughly investigating the case, to indict Jacob S. Harris, who shot and killed Thos. H. Merritt, the pension attorney.

Hon. Sam J. Pugh is quite well pleased with the committee places assigned to him by Speaker Reed. He is a member of the Committee on Appropriations, one of the most important in Congress, and also of the Committee on Alcoholic Liquor Traffic. None of the Kentucky members fared better than Mr. Pugh.

When you see Murphy, the Jeweler's, stock of Diamonds and Gold Watches you will be convinced that he carries the largest stock. When you learn his prices you will be convinced that his prices are lower. He never misrepresents goods; all are warranted.

I knew a maiden, fair and sweet, Whom I had loved for years. At last one day I told her this. Although with many fears.

At first she did not say a word. Then in a pleasant way. She looked out into the West and said: "It is a pleasant day."

She had not heard a single word. She's told me since with tears. She wore her hair, as some girls will, Down over both her ears.

Mr. Dan Lloyd and Mr. and Mrs. Early Worick were the chaperons to a large company of persons who made up a storm party, enjoying the pleasures which come from surprises and expectations. The objective point to which nearly forty young persons turned their attention, as well as horses, on last Friday evening was a large and vacant house on the farm of Mr. John Kirk, not far from Fernleaf. The guests arrived at 9 o'clock and tarried till well nigh morn, the evening being passed in terpsichorean pleasures, eating and convivial delights, which make the heart young and keep the wave of age back. A string band of the neighborhood furnished the music, the ladies took the bountiful lunch and the gentlemen defrayed the expenses. The feature of the evening, and one which gave great joy to all and certainly covered the author with glory, was the "Silver Speech" of Mr. Willygn Reese. It was a happy time all round, and those present hope the time is not far off when another storm party can be indulged in.
